

Germans Withdraw From Western Tip Of Belgian Salient

Massing for New Stand 15 Miles Or So West of the German Border

WITH U. S. THIRD ARMY, Jan. 11.—(AP)—The Third Army attacked the pocket southeast of Bastogne from three sides today and in 11 hours wiped out half the area, and resistance in the remainder was collapsing rapidly. At the start the pocket was about five miles long and four wide.

One American division launched the attack from the south at 1 a. m. and in a few minutes cut the vital road junction in the pocket near Doncols, 3½ miles west of Wiltz.

The Germans were confused by the three-sided attack and did not know which way to run.

The 6th Armored Division, attacking from the west, chased one convoy of Germans down the Bastogne-Wiltz highway toward the east into direct artillery fire from the division coming from the south.

The convoy was wiped out with hundreds of killed and 400 taken prisoner. Others were scattered through the woods.

PARIS, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Allied troops captured strategic Laroche today and British patrols in a swift ten-mile advance through the collapsing western end of the Belgian bulge reached the Champlon area, a mile east of the north-south road between Laroche and St. Hubert.

The road was cut without opposition.

The Germans quickened their skillful, orderly withdrawal in the deep snow as the American First and Third armies drove in from north and south and the British Second army pursued through profuse minefields from the west.

The main British force was four miles behind the patrols which penetrated the Champlon area, almost through the difficult Frey forest. The town is 13 miles west of Houffalize, which the Germans may attempt to make the center of a new defensive front shielding the eastern half of the bulge.

The Allies captured the strategic road center of Laroche (pop. 1,928) on the north side of the salient at 9:05 a. m. Patrols entered the town, 14 miles northwest of Bastogne, yesterday and found it lightly held.

Weather Still Bad

The cruelest enemy for both sides was the continuing blizzard, with temperatures nine above zero fahrenheit.

Signs today were that the Nazi commander hoped to establish a new line 15 miles or so west of the German border between Vielsalm, already entered by the U. S. First army, Houffalize and the Bastogne sector.

A dozen or more towns fell. By latest reports, Von Rundstedt has pulled out of the toe of the Ardennes sock with all possible speed. But there was no sign of a stampede such as that in which Field Marshal Von Kluge's German 7th army was partly destroyed in the Falaise massacre in Normandy. Snow and mist gave the Nazis cover.

(The German communiqué announced a withdrawal from the area west of the steep banked Ourthe river, which flows through by-passed Laroche, "in order to secure the deep flanks of the front in the Ardennes." The enemy claimed to have "liberated" several towns in Alsace-Lorraine, including Runkel. The communiqué said encircled troops had been annihilated south of Erstein, 10 miles below Strasbourg, and that 300 were captured.)

Repulse Nazi Attacks

Gen Eisenhower's communiqué said "German attacks were repulsed in the Alsace plain between Strasbourg and Colmar," where reinforced enemy columns have struck to within ten miles of the Rhine city. U. S. Seventh army troops stormed into Oetting, a suburb of Forbach and only five miles southwest of the wasted Saarland capital of Saarbrücken. British Second army troops captured half a dozen towns in the western tip of the Belgian

S. S. Sedalia Is Christened

BALTIMORE, Jan. 11.—(AP)—The S. S. Sedalia Victory was christened today in honor of the Missouri town of the same name.

The 10,700-ton merchant cargo vessel was the second Victory ship to be launched at the Bethlehem Fairfield Shipyards this year. It was sponsored by Mrs. John G. Crawford of Arlington, Va., wife of Capt. John G. Crawford, who is stationed in Washington.

The United Fruit company will operate the S. S. Sedalia Victory.

A dispatch from the Kansas City Star's Washington Bureau states in this morning's Times that included in the list of Missourians, many of them one-time Sedalians who planned to attend the ceremonies were:

Judge and Mrs. Thurman Arnold, Dr. and Mrs. Walter E. Dandy, Mrs. Royall A. Hauer, Miss Eva Jane Lewis, vice-president of the Missouri State Society of Washington, Miss Louise Van Dyne, daughter of Mrs. Crawford, Major John Hadley of Kansas City, Lieut. Col. James E. Connor and Lieut. Richard Wilks, of the navy.

Resignation To Governor

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Senator Harry S. Truman today formally announced his resignation as Democratic Senator from Missouri, effective January 18.

He will take the oath as vice president two days later.

Truman made public the following letter he mailed yesterday to Gov. Phil M. Donnelly of Missouri, who is expected to name State Senator Frank Briggs as Truman's successor:

"Due to the fact I am to be sworn in as vice president of the United States on January twenty-ninth, I am tendering my resignation as United States Senator from Missouri, effective January eighteenth.

"I understand you are expecting to be present for the ceremony and will arrive on the seventeenth or eighteenth. I shall be most happy to see you, and if there are any errands here that can be performed for you either before or after I am out of a job as United States senator, I will be glad to do it."

In Missouri's capital, Donnelly told his morning press conference he had not yet received Truman's letter of resignation, but was expecting it soon.

Briggs himself attended the conference, jokingly going in with newsman while he waited to confer with the governor. Briggs, now publisher of the Macon, Mo., Chronicle-Herald formerly was a reporter and has owned interests in several Missouri papers.

Returns From South Pacific

Tech. Sergeant Ralph Meyer, U. S. Marine Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Meyer, 1905 East Broadway, is spending part of his leave visiting with his parents. Sgt. Meyer recently returned from 24 months spent in the South Pacific theatre of war.

He participated in two major engagements in the South Pacific, saw service on Saipan, in the Solomons and Bismarck archipelago. He wears the service ribbons for the South Pacific, two stars for the major engagements and also a presidential citation presented the unit he was with.

Sgt. Meyer has been in the service three years.

Army Casualties Reach 564,351

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Secretary of War Stimson disclosed today that army casualties have reached 564,351, exclusive of losses suffered in the German counter-offensive launched Dec. 16 on the western front.

The army's total coupled with the latest navy figure of 82,029 pushed overall casualties to 646,380 since Pearl Harbor, an increase of 8,241 since last week's report. Of the increase, the army casualties accounted for 7,999 and the navy for 242.

Stimson said he expected to have next week a report on casualties from the German counter-offensive.

Award Bronze Star Medal to Tech. J. H. Reese for Bravery

The Bronze Star medal has been awarded Tech. J. H. Reese now in Belgium with the "Lucky Seventh" armored division which recently distinguished itself by advancing 600 miles in 21 days. His wife, Mrs. Delia Viola Reese, who resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Case at 1502 South Prospect avenue has received the following data confirming the award of the honor to her husband:

"Headquarters Seventh Armored Division, U. S. Army 22 November, 1944.

"By direction of the president and of the provisions of AR 600-45 No. 34, Headquarters Ninth U. S. Army, 8 September, 1944, as amended, the Bronze Star medal is awarded Tech. J. H. Reese 37493126 field artillery, U. S. Army for distinguishing himself by heroic service in action with military operations against an enemy of the United States on 28 October, 1944. Entered military service from Missouri."

"By order of commanding general."

Concerning the unusual 21-day achievement of the Seventh armored division, an article written by Marshall Morgan for "Stars and Stripes" states: "Brightest feathers in the Seventh's cap are the historic cities of Chartres, Chateau-Thierry, Rheims and Verdun. Major battles were fought at Chartres and Chateau-Thierry. At Melun, on the Seine, the Seventh encountered and overcame that bugaboo of all tactical problems: A river crossing under fire.

"More than 5,900 prisoners were scooped up during the drive, and an unestimated number of Nazi dead marked its path."

Tech. Reese entered service December 29, 1942, and has been in England, Holland and France as well as in Belgium. Before entering service he was employed as truck driver for a beverage company.

Germans Fake A Broadcast, Slur Yanks

LONDON, Jan. 11.—(AP)—The German radio, masquerading as the BBC in an ingenious scheme to disrupt Allied unity, faked a broadcast slurring American troops and giving all the credit for stopping the German drive in Belgium to Field Marshal Montgomery, the British Broadcasting Company disclosed last night.

"No such broadcast has been made in any BBC service," the company said in revealing the Nazi trick that caused reported indignation in the United States and among American troops at the front.

Explaining the German stratagem, BBC said the enemy radio relayed from Germany in the proper wave length authentic BBC broadcasts and spliced into them the phony news comment in such a manner that the ruse could not be detected by the untrained ear.

The phony broadcast had said that "Montgomery found no defense lines, the Americans somewhat bewildered, a few reserves on hand, and supply lines cut." (The Associated Press did not report the broadcast.)

Thinks "Monty" Is Slurred

Meanwhile, the London Daily Mail contended editorially today that American Lt. Gen. Omar Bradley's press conference on the western front Tuesday was "a slur to Monty" because Bradley said Montgomery's command of the American First and Ninth armies was temporary.

The London Daily Express published today under the headline "Thanks, Yanks" a dispatch from one of its western front correspondents declaring the Germans might have captured Antwerp and caught the British Second army in a fatal trap if the Americans had not held Bastogne.

The dispatch, cabled by Allen Moorhead, said:

"There would have been no escape route by sea this time. But General Bradley and his Americans hung on somehow."

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, Paris, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Brendan Bracken, British minister of information, told supreme headquarters in a message today that the purpose of BBC broadcast critical of Gen. Eisenhower and exaggerating British military achievement actually came from a German station.

"BBC had nothing to do with this broadcast," Bracken said. "It came from one of the fake enemy stations."

"Like the rest of the British people, the governors of BBC have the greatest admiration for Gen. Eisenhower. They are grate-

Donnell Seeks Place to Live

By Charles C. Haslet

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Senator Forrest C. Donnell, who moved from Missouri's spacious governor's mansion Monday, started a search today for a modest apartment.

"We need only a very modest establishment," said the senator after taking the oath of office in the Senate. "An apartment or maybe a furnished room somewhere—but I'd better ask Mrs. Donnell."

Today they had a room in a residential hotel.

Donnell, with typical caution, declined to discuss his views on public issues with reporters, asserting that "The first thing I want to do is to get my feet on the ground."

"I was impressed with the solemnity and the heavy obligation which rests on the Senate," he said. "And the cordiality with which Mrs. Donnell and I were received at the capitol touched me."

While the senator sat in his secretary's office chatting with reporters, Mrs. Donnell was busy in the senator's private office, unwrapping the former governor's desk set which he had used in the Missouri executive offices.

She hoped, she said, that the life of a senator's wife would not be as exacting as that of a first lady of a state. A reporter suggested she could do her own marketing here.

"I've always done that," she replied.

The senator disclosed that his first meal in the Senate restaurant was liver and onions.

"It was about all that was left," he said.

Wed to Best Man by Mistake

WEST PLAINS, Mo. Jan. 11.—(AP)—An alleged clerical error which caused a West Plains girl to become the wife of her fiancé's friend, when she and Dale Howard of Kansas City thought they were being married, has resulted in a petition filed in Howell county circuit court to legally clear up the matter.

Miss Dorothy Jennings and Howard went to Salem, Ark., on December 4 to be married. They were accompanied by Harold Clinton, a close friend of Howard, the petition relates and Howard made the marriage application and obtained the license for them.

Through a mistake of the clerk, the license was issued to Clinton and Miss Jennings, justice of the Peace Mack Caruthers of Salem performed the ceremony and the mistake was not discovered until

War Prisoner Receives Mail

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Palmer, 233 East Booneville, today received a card from their son, Pvt. Paul E. Palmer, who became a prisoner of the Japanese at Coregidor May 5, 1941. He has been overseas four years.

The card, headed "Imperial Japanese Army," was one of the form cards on which space is provided for typed messages, signed by the internee. Pvt. Palmer checked that he was at Philippine Military Prison Camp No. 8, that his health was good, and wrote: "I have received your package and letters. Tell Uncle John hello. As ever, Paul E. Palmer."

Although Mr. and Mrs. Palmer have received word from him from time to time, this was their first assurance that he was receiving letters and packages they sent.

War Mobilizer Issues Orders To Save Coal

Bans Outdoor Display Lighting; Less Heat in Homes

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(AP)—The American people reached for red flannels and extra blankets today after James F. Byrnes issued an appeal that appeared likely to leave the country cold.

Without exception, the war mobilizer requested last night that temperatures in all homes and public buildings be held to 68 degrees.

That was only one of the ways he proposed to save coal, meet an impending shortage of the fuel and avoid its rationing. He made compliance voluntary.

On the mandatory side, he ordered imposition of a "brownout." The war production board was instructed to issue orders banning all illuminated outdoor advertising and any ornamental or display lighting which uses coal-generated electricity.

And Byrnes told the office of defense transportation to eliminate special and excursion trains and extra passenger schedules to re-route. What ODT will do about it is obscure, for some time ago it froze passenger train schedules and forbade specials.

Curb Gas and Oil Too

The curb on hot houses and offices will apply to those heated by gas and oil as well as coal. That was on the reasoning that oil is rationed and much gas used for heating comes from coal.

"The secretary of the interior, who is also solid fuels administrator, estimates it will be necessary to reduce the overall consumption of bituminous coal by 25,000,000 tons during 1945," Byrnes said. "This is based on the assumption there is no stoppage of work during the year."

The war mobilization director cited these factors in the tight coal situation:

Bituminous coal requirements for 1945 are estimated at 620,000,000 tons, production at 580,000,000 tons. Consumption exceeded production in 1944 and 1943. The number of miners in 1945 is expected to fall to 390,000, compared with 435,000 in 1943 and 420,000 last year.

The production deficit in the past has been met by digging into the nation's coal piles. But Byrnes said stockpiles will be down to 40,000,000 tons by April 1 and that is only a 22-day supply. And by the time the stockpile gets below a 30-day supply, he said, "serious distribution problems may be expected."

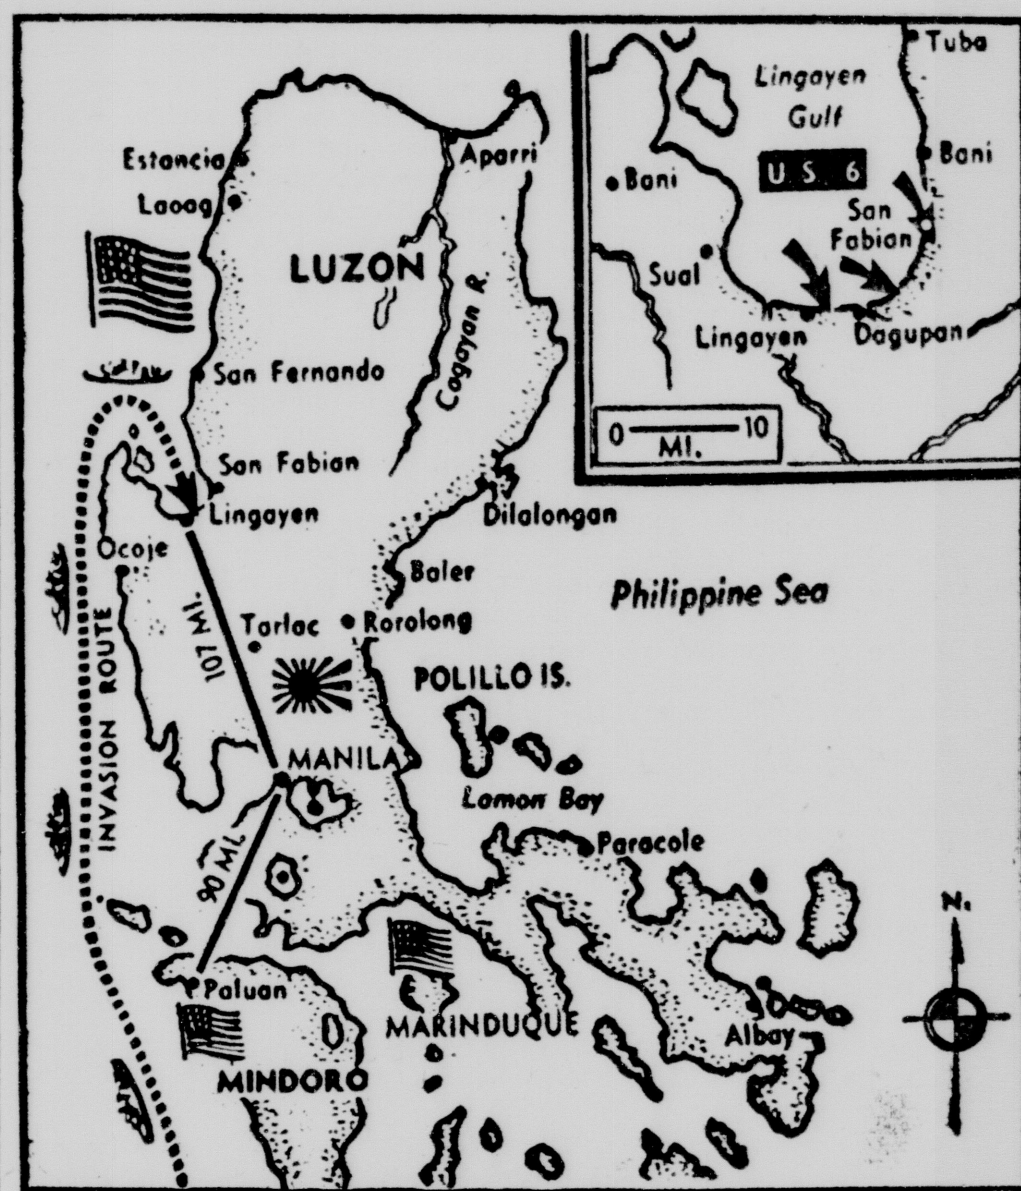

Rigid Delivery Controls

A few hours before Byrnes acted, Interior Secretary Ickes had called for the holding of temperatures to 70 degrees or lower in all large buildings east of the Mississippi river which are heated by soft coal. Unless this is done, he said, there will be more rigid controls of fuel deliveries.

Byrnes' offices didn't know what Ickes had done, and an official at the solid fuels administration (Please Turn to Page 4 Col. 2)

Tokyo Asserts Yank Forces Were Wiped Out

By The Associated Press

Tokyo radio asserted today American forces attempted another amphibious landing on Luzon island, nine miles north of their original beachhead, but were wiped out within ten minutes.

The unconfirmed broadcast, recorded by the Federal Communications Commission, said:

"Another enemy landing of troops attempted to get a foothold near Rabon, 15 kilometers north of San Fabian. All of the Japanese guns on the beach opened fire all at once, completely wiping out all of them within ten minutes."

The propaganda broadcast claimed that "immense battles are now being fought in the Lingayen gulf," and "enemy transports and landing barges fully loaded with American troops are being blown off the beaches one after the other in the all-out offensive of Japanese forces."

The broadcast, at complete variance with American reports, was beamed to India.

Previously the Japanese Domei agency admitted that American invasion forces were "gradually increasing their reinforcements at San Fabian and Dagupan" and that a "considerable number of tanks have been landed at other beachheads."

Springfield Board Quits

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Jan. 11.—(AP)—All the members of the Springfield city park board submitted their resignations to Mayor Harry B. Carr today.

Their action was a sequel to a disagreement with the city council over plans for a municipal golf course.

The council proposed to make a golf links of the present city-owned airport, which is to be abandoned in favor of a new $1,000,000 flying field now being completed.

But the park board members, calling the proposal a "demand" which they could not fulfill because the site is not suitable, decided to quit in a body.

7th Fleet Continues To Pour Troops, Arms and Supplies Onto the Beachhead

By C. Yates McDaniel

GEN. MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Luzon, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Manila-bound American infantrymen stretched their beachhead over 22 miles of Lingayen gulf and drove inland from four key towns today toward impending major battles with Japanese reinforcements struggling north over bomb-cut roads.

Only damaging opposition came at sea where night attacking Japanese planes and torpedo boats hit several ships in a convoy bringing up 14th corps reinforcements.

On land, the Yanks seized twenty towns and villages, captured Lingayen airfield and pushed their advanced spearheads to a little more than 100 miles north of Manila. Nowhere was serious resistance reported.

Thursday's communiqué announced the doughboys overran the towns of San Fabian, Lingayen, Mangaldan and Dagupan in the first 24 hours and pressed inland for an average advance of four miles. Patrols were well ahead of this average penetration.

A field dispatch from Fred Hampson, Associated Press war correspondent, disclosed units of the 14th army corps pushing west along the coast from Lingayen, were within two miles of Port Sual. This broadened the base of the American drive to cover 22 miles of the southern Lingayen coastline.

7th Fleet Brings Troops

The 7th fleet continued to pour troops, armament and supplies on to the beachhead while Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita pulled his scattered Japanese divisions together, as MacArthur did in 1941 in his converging withdrawal to Bataan peninsula.

A few bomb-carrying Japanese swam or dived among American vessels under cover of darkness in futile human-torpedo attacks on the crowded shores.

Associated Press correspondent Al Dopping reported the Japanese approached American vessels "in slow boats, or swimming with their heads hidden under boxes, and pushing before them 'hand made' torpedoes, tiny bombs and even hand grenades." One hurled himself on the deck of a small craft and was blown to bits. Two others tried to blow up a destroyer by tying hand grenades to its fantail.

Unloading operations went ahead without interruption despite these attacks, ineffective night aerial sorties, and fifty-thousand tons of guns, tanks, munitions, engineering and aviation equipment was unloaded the first day, with four times that amount scheduled to be laid down by tonight.

Use Japanese Airfield

American artillery spotting airplanes began using the 7,000 foot long Lingayen airfield yesterday. Associated Press correspondent Spencer Davis found a number of old and wrecked Japanese transports and fighter planes on the field.

Only the prompt withdrawal of the Japanese garrison from Lingayen gulf saved it from early destruction, for in no place on the invasion sector did Yamashita have sufficient power to withstand the blow struck by sea, air and land power Jan. 9.

Correspondent Hampson reported troops from the Lingayen sector pressed about five miles inland, in addition to expanding their holding on the shore.

(The westward advance to within two miles of Port Sual would put the 14th corps across the mouth of the winding Agno river.) Hampson said the 14th corps had overrun about 20 towns and villages, including Lingayen, capital of Pangasinan province. Port Sual is a fair ship anchorage.

Merry-Go-Round

by DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11 — Not many outside the White House realize it, but there is little lost between the president of the United States and his assistant, ex-Justice Jimmy Byrnes. In fact, most of the recent recommendations which Byrnes made to congress for tightening up the war were made without consulting FDR. Byrnes not only made these recommendations on his own, but announced the fact in a press conference.

Furthermore Byrnes flouted one of the standing rules laid down by the White House in this and other administrations, not to issue policy recommendations affecting other departments without consulting the departments involved.

In his recommendations to congress, the popular South Carolina jurist abruptly threw all this to the winds. He talked about taxes without even a whisper of consultation with Secretary of Treasury Morgenthau, the man who has to handle taxes.

He let loose on labor strikes without a word to chairman of the war labor board Will Davis, the man who has to handle strikes. He even made a crack indirectly against Davis about handling the Petrillos in the same way as the Averys, despite the fact that Byrnes himself had advised Davis not to crack down on Petrillo when the musicians' union chief got out of bounds.

The result is Morgenthau is irked. Will Davis is irked, and most of all the president is irked.

Roosevelt's Hands Tied

However, there isn't much the president can do about it. He persuaded Byrnes to remain on the job as war mobilizer after the national democratic convention in

THE WAY OUR PEOPLE LIVED

A DAY IN A VIRGINIA PLANTER'S LIFE (1713)

WHEN breakfast was over Swain and Randall delayed their departure to play a game of billiards and to have a long and meaningless talk with a music master who had come out from the village to tune a spinet that stood in the large hall, or living room.

They were both saturated with the spirit of leisure which was an outstanding quality of life in colonial Virginia. In this respect Puritan New England and Virginia were far apart. The Puritans were tense, nervous, industrious and so reluctant to waste time that they labored even when there was nothing to do.

The Virginians were placid, friendly, lazy and pleasure-loving. They did not mind if time were wasted, for they had learned from experience that many a thing that ought to be done today could wait until tomorrow without harm.

Their sense of hospitality was so remarkable that one may search the files of history in vain for a parallel. In the 18th century a stranger in Virginia, if he were decent and well-behaved, might have lived for a year without any expense for board and lodging, simply by moving from one locality to another and allowing the inhabitants of the various places to entertain him as a guest.

This desire to entertain strangers showed itself in some rather astonishing ways. There are recorded instances of Virginia gentlemen waiting on horseback on a well-traveled road for the purpose of intercepting wayfarers and inviting these travelers to come home with them as guests.

The Virginia house complained frequently that it could make no money because most of the travelers who passed through the neighborhood were entertained, without charge, at private homes.

Chicago when Jimmy's feelings were hurt over the vice presidential turnout. He also went to Byrnes' head to pick Stettinius as secretary of state when Jimmy thought he was going to get the No. 1 cabinet post.

So Jimmy, being one of the shrewdest men in Washington, knows FDR can't fire him, and it looks as though he was going to throw his weight around.

Almost every observer who watches Washington work feels it is an excellent thing to have a No. 2 man around the White House to handle domestic problems — provided he is pulling together with the president. The president, concentrating on the war and foreign relations, now as never before needs such an administrator.

Byrnes is able, astute, influential. The trouble is, however, cabinet members are not quite sure at the moment whether Byrnes, when he makes certain moves, is really representing the president. Also, relations between Byrnes and Harry Hopkins are not too good beneath the surface; so with FDR frequently away or tied up with the war, it is harder to get coordinated decisions than at almost any time in years.

Note — One thing which hasn't helped the Roosevelt-Byrnes relations is the suspicion that Jimmy originated the "Clear it with Sidney" slogan which caused so much damage during the campaign. When Jimmy aspired to be his vice presidential running mate, FDR was reported to have told him to get the OK of Sidney Hillman. Any leak from Byrnes about this probably was inadvertent, but his close friend Bernard Baruch has been given credit for helping put the story into wide circulation.

EDWARD SWAIN and Henry Randall did not leave Williamsburg until 10 o'clock. About a dozen yards behind them rode their two servants or shaggy farm horses. Swain's man, Dave Pottle, was white, blond and Welsh by birth. He was an indentured servant who had still two years to serve before his freedom was due. Swain had bought him from a ship captain in 1708 for 2500 pounds of tobacco, which covered the cost of his passage from Bristol, the money value of which was around 12 pounds sterling. To repay this debt David had been indentured for seven years. Upon his release from service his master would give him, according to the Virginia law, 50 acres of land, two suits of clothing, a felt hat, 12 bushels of corn meal and a gun worth 20 shillings.

Randall's servant was a Negro slave, a native of Africa, alert and quick and unusually intelligent. He was about 25 years old, and had been in America for more than 10 years. As he had never worked in the fields, but had always been a house boy, he spoke English remarkably well.

Mathew, or Mat, took care of his master's clothes and saddle horses. The garments of a gentleman, in that period of Virginia history, required a great deal of attention, for they were expensive and made of delicate fabrics. The greater part of Mat's time was given to them. He had become a fairly competent journeyman tailor, and could make repairs in the garments.

Henry Randall's suits, like those of many Virginia gentlemen of that era, were made in London. Every Virginian of means had a English tailor who kept his measurements on file and also knew his tastes in clothing. An order for a suit took from three to five months to fill, on account of the long ocean voyage both ways. There were some tailors in Virginia, but it seems that the

Looking Backward FORTY YEARS AGO

W. E. Winner of the Sedalia and Warrensburg Interurban railway, arrived in the city yesterday from Kansas City, and he will remain here for several days to assist in starting the preliminary work on the railway. Mr. Winner, in company of E. D. Bosserman, drove over the line from the western city limits to the new Missouri Pacific shops, and upon his return expressed the hope that the weather would moderate sufficiently to permit surveying and other necessary first steps in the preparation for active operations.

A merry party of young folks had a thoroughly enjoyable sleigh ride over the city last night. They dined at Pehl's and rounded out the evening's pleasure with a dance at Pioneer hall.

The Volunteers of America had about 150 guests at the oyster supper served at their hall on West Main street last night.

The night police force has been decidedly inactive during the last two nights, either because there was "nothing doing" or because it was more comfortable on the lee side of a red-hot stove. As a result there has not been a single arrest or case on trial in the police court for the past two days.

Persuading Nazi Prisoners

Recently the army's shrewd psychological warfare branch installed sound equipment at the edge of a Nazi-held post behind the Allied lines in France and offered the Germans a novel "trial surrender."

The message broadcast to the higher social class did not patronize them.

THE usual costume of men of wealth and authority consisted of knee breeches made of broadcloth, velvet or silk; a vest of colored silk—usually green or scarlet; and a coat of broadcloth. The vest was long in front and tight fitting. The coat reached nearly to the knees and was square-cut, with large pockets. Below the waist it flared out. It was usually dark-blue or black, but other colors—such as scarlet, brown and green—were also worn. A gentleman's clothes had buttons of silver or brass; men of lower rank had wooden buttons. Shirts were of white linen, with lace ruffles on the bosom and at the wrists. The well-dressed man wore silk stockings, usually red in color, and boots with wide, spreading tops. But these clumsy boots were not worn all the time. On bright, clear days the gentleman would appear in low shoes, and indoors at home he wore soft leather slippers. The head covering was a large, wide-brimmed felt hat which carried a plume. In cold or rainy weather a cloak was worn. There were no overcoats.

The habit of wearing wigs never became as popular in Virginia and the southern colonies as it was in New England; nevertheless wigs were common enough. Nearly all men of authority, or distinction, or wealth, wore them. Both Randall and Swain were wig-wearers. Randall had adopted the fashion because he was partly bald and he thought that a fine, bushy wig would not only conceal his baldness but give him also an air of dignity. Swain's reason was altogether different. He detested wigs, but he wore them because Governor Spotswood was a wig-wearer, and he wanted the governor to have a good opinion of him.

Petition For Chef To Stay On Job

JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 11—

(P)—Nearly 1,500 convicts have petitioned Orel Wood to stay on as chef at the state penitentiary declaring that during his three years as prison steward they have had "better meals, served hot and more appetizing."

Wood said he was "touched" by the petition.

As Steward, the 39-year-old Wood is credited with setting up a cafeteria system in the big prison dining rooms. He supervises preparation of nearly 6,000 meals a day.

He was chef at the state tuberculosis sanatorium at Mount Vernon until the penal board asked him to come to the prison.

Three Destroyers Lost In Typhoon

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11—(P)—

Three destroyers of the Pacific fleet were lost during a severe typhoon in the western Pacific, the navy announced Wednesday.

The vessels were the Hull, the Spence and the Monaghan.

At the same time, the navy announced the loss as the result of enemy action in the Pacific of four landing craft (LST), a motor torpedo boat, a small submarine chaser and a small auxiliary vessel.

The Hull and Monaghan had normal complements of about 150 men each and the Spence about 220. The commanding officer, 420 other officers and 49 men of the Hull were rescued. Survivors of the Spence totaled 24, including one officer of the supply corps, and six of the personnel of the Monaghan were rescued.

The Hull was skippered by Lt. Comdr. James Alexander Marks of Chevy Chase, Md.; the Spence by Lt. Comdr. James Paul Adrea of 3432 Martha Custis Drive, Alexandria, Va., and the Monaghan by Lt. Comdr. Floyd Bruce Garrett, Jr., Little Rock, Ark.

The navy said the disaster occurred while the vessels were taking part in recent combat operations in the western Pacific. In addition to the three destroyers, a number of vessels suffered damage during the severe typhoon.

Next of kin of casualties of the Hull and Monaghan have been notified and those of the Spence will be notified as soon as possible.

A court of inquiry headed by Vice Admiral J. H. Hoover was convened, the navy said, by Fleet Admiral Chester Nimitz to investigate the circumstances.

Missouri in LITERATURE

Missouri has nurtured the genius of more than 200 famous writers.

"Mark Twain," Eugene Field and Rupert Hughes were native sons. Augustus Thomas, Susan Boogher, Winston Churchill, T. S. Eliot and Sara Teasdale were born in St. Louis. Zoe Atkins came from Humansville, Glenn Frank from Queen City, Walter Williams from Boonville. Kansas City claims Courtney Ryley Cooper, Mary Blake Woodson, Edgar Snow and Burris Jenkins. Breckenridge Ellis and O. O. McIntire came from Plattsburg. Other notables are George Creel, Vance Randolph, Thomas Hart Benton, James Earp, Orrick Johns, and Josephine Johnson. "Who's Who" lists 42 Missouri poets.

Missouri lives in literature. Rich in tradition, inspiring in its beauty—our state has kindled in its sons and daughters the spark that flames into undying prose and poetry—added proof of its versatile greatness.

A dessert luncheon will be followed by a bridge party.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Walter, 1000 West Seventh street, entertained a few close friends at a 7 o'clock dinner Wednesday evening at the Sedalia Country club. Bridge was played after the dinner.

Presented in an artist recital by the Helen G. Steele Music club Wednesday at 2 p. m. at Heard Memorial clubhouse, Miss Maxine Korfhage, Kansas City soprano, demonstrated the artistic possibilities of the well-trained human voice as "the noblest instrument." Pearl Roemer Kelly, also of Kansas City, was accompanist.

Clear enunciation, meticulous phrasing and brilliancy—all the ascriptions of a pleasing voice—were evidenced by the singer; however, her voice sang its own song of praise recently in competition with 10,000 auditionists throughout the United States and Miss Korfhage was chosen one of the "lucky 13" finalists to appear in New York at Radio City on the General Electric "Hour of Charm" program with Phil Spitalny conducting. "It still seems like a dream to me," she mused, when telling, a the request of the club, of her trip.

Following a business session over which Mrs. E. F. Yancey, life president, presided, Miss Korfhage opened her recital with a lyrical selection, "Rose Softly Blooming" (Spohr). Her performance of "Der Tone" (Marx) and the bright "Vergebliches Skandchen" by Brahms established faith in her musicianship.

Most beautiful of all was her fervent interpretation of "Ave Maria" from "The Cross of Fire" (Bruch), which composed the entire second division of the program.

Pearl Roemer Kelly's piano solos are tantamount to the high quality of her accompaniments, it was disclosed when she played the piano arrangement of the Tartini-Corbelli "Variations," originally written for violin, and "Meditation" by Tchaikovsky.

Miss Korfhage's performance of the tender "Chere Nuit" (Bachet) and the frolicsome "A Des Oiseaux" (Hue) preceded her concluding group consisting of "Time, You Old Gipsy Man" (Besly), "A Fragment of Memory" (Matthews) and "Awakening" (Golde).

As encores, she sang "Life" (Curan) and her selection for "The Hour of Charm" appearance, Friml's "L'Amour-Toujours-L'Amour."

A 12:15 p. m. luncheon preceded the program.

Need Civilians For Army Work

Col. S. C. Judge of St. Louis with the adjutant general's office was in Sedalia Wednesday in the interest of obtaining clerks, young men or women, for vital jobs in the headquarters of the Army Service Forces, Washington, D. C., particularly in the casualty division.

He stated that Mrs. Charlotte Mehder, civil service recruiting representative will be in Sedalia at the United States Employment Service, Fifth street and Ohio avenue, from January 15 through January 27, to interview and hire workers. All hiring is done in accordance with the war manpower commission regulations.

"Now that we are entering the most critical period of the war, the work of the army service forces, Washington, D. C., becomes increasingly important," said Col. Judge, pointing out that many additional clerical assistants are now needed in Washington, D. C.

Transportation is paid, housing guaranteed, excellent salaries are offered in addition to the special benefits offered in civil service positions, which include paid vacations, sick leave, employee counseling and organized recreational activities.

Business Activity On the Increase

According to the Monthly Review of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, during November, 1944, debits to individual accounts at banks in Sedalia, Mo., aggregated $5,980,000, and were 13 per cent greater than those for the same month last year. These debit figures represent for the most part checks against depositors' accounts in payment of goods, services, and debts, and are considered a good indicator of general business activity.

Soldiers at SAAF Planning for Show

Production of an all-soldiers show is being planned by the special service office at the Sedalia Army Air Field, and said show is not to be confused with quickie vaudeville attempts of the "off to Buffalo" variety. Major Lovette L. Hill and S Sgt. Frank R. Brown have their heads together, and, with the cooperation of Warrant Officer Wilson, expect to start casting very soon. Sgt. Brown was a Hollywood showman before donning OD, and has made quite a reputation with a 60-soldier cast in 1942-43, and was cited by the treasury department for his War Bonds show before he transferred to Troop Carrier Command.

bulge in advances of more than two miles around a 25-mile arc from by-passed Laroche to Bure. These were Roy, Harsin, Charneux, Nassogne, Masbourg and Halleux. The westernmost still was 37 miles inside Belgium.

American First army troops on the north side of the salient fought on the outskirts of Laroche and inside Vielsalm, 9 miles west of St. Vith. They captured Bi-hain and moved 1,000 yards southward through stiff opposition to points within three miles of the Houffalize-St. Vith highway, last major road in the bulge.

Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's Third army on the south won commanding ground outside St. Hubert, 14 miles west of Bastogne. The Germans said they had evacuated St. Hubert, their southwest anchor. Third army troops also captured Harlange, six miles southeast of Bastogne, another mile into the rough Harlange pocket where the Germans were fighting back with tanks and cannon.

In the midst of a beautiful and attractively decorated blue room, and before a large crowd of parents and friends, the Order of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 15, held installation of 1945 officers at the Temple Wednesday night. The room was decorated with white Christmas trees and lighted candles against a dark background.

Mrs. Frank Coffman, guardian, and Glenn Kirkpatrick, associate guardian, entered the room and took positions in the east. The honored queen, Miss Hazel Kirkpatrick, and the choir entered the room and took their respective places. Miss Kirkpatrick announced the officers for 1945 were to be installed and welcomed the members, parents and friends and named the installing officers.

Mrs. Robert Wild, installing grand guardian; Mrs. Robert Pack, installing grand chaplain; Miss Geraldine Teufel, installing grand pianist; Mrs. George Chambers, installing grand secretary; Miss Hazel Kirkpatrick, installing grand guide, and Miss Dorothy Bruns, installing grand marshal, were then escorted to their respective stations.

Pledge of Allegiance
The new officers then entered the room and took places behind the altar. Miss Dorothy Bruns, installing grand marshal entered with the American flag, placed it before the altar and after a tribute to the flag, proceeded to the east where the flag was grounded, followed by all repeating the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. Mrs. Robert Pack, installing grand chaplain, then gave a prayer.

Miss Margaret Kahrs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kahrs, incoming honored queen, was escorted to the altar, then to the east to her position. Little Donnie Aven, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Aven, and a nephew of Miss Kahrs, presented Miss Kahrs with a bouquet of mixed flowers, then followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. Aven and a violin solo by Mrs. J. M. Rodeman, accompanied by Miss Teufel.

Miss Mary Jo Vilmer, senior queen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Vilmer, and the junior queen, Miss Dorothy Knerl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd G. Knerl, were escorted to the altar, then to their positions in the east.

Miss Hazel Kirkpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kirkpatrick, was escorted to the east by the guide and marshal, and presented with a past honored queen's jewel by Miss June Decker. Miss Kirkpatrick thanked the Bethel for the gift and expressed her appreciation.

Pinup Girl Pictures Known by Soldiers as Foxhole Heaters

By Hal Boyle
WITH THE AMERICAN FIRST ARMY IN BELGIUM, Jan. 8.—(Delayed)—(P)—Foxhole Flash: Pinup girl pictures are now known everywhere along this frozen front as "foxhole heaters." . . .

Lt. Col. Andy A. Lipscomb of Bessemer, Ala., picks as "the tightest man on the battlefield" Staff Sgt. Warren Ritchie, 24, of Fredericksburg, Pa. . . . Ritchie killed nine Germans and took 14 prisoners in cleaning out a German pillbox singlehanded. . . . He just reported he "shot a few" at 300 yards and the rest "closer up."

One group of doughboys got their flap jacks still warm from shrapnel. . . . Two privates were carrying them up in a thermos when a snail landed nearby and smashed the jug, scattering the flapjacks over the landscape. . . . Carrying out the slogan "The chow must go through," the two privates picked themselves up, assembled all the frazzled flapjacks they could find and delivered them on schedule. . . .

Hit Tank With Bazooka
One American soldier not only hit a German tank with a bazooka shell—he hit it with the bazooka itself. . . . He was firing so fast that the tank was helping him load forgot to raise the catch on the rocket, so that when he fired both shell and weapon left his hands. . . .

His buddies say Pvt. Frank A. Babinatz, Lansford, Pa., had a field day in the first day of combat. . . . They credit him with 28 "confirmed" dead Germans and as many "probables." . . .

Another Second infantry division doughboy, Pvt. Marco Albertelli of Toughkenamon, Pa., was guarding nine prisoners en route to the rear lines. . . . One of the Germans stepped on a hidden Nazi mine. . . . All nine of the closely grouped prisoners were killed—but Albertelli, who was following a few paces back, didn't receive a scratch. . . .

To Mrs. Joseph Stephenson of Shreveport, La., has gone the first American flag to fly over Brest. . . . It was sent her by her husband, Lt. Joseph Stephenson, who raised it over a hotel two days before the Nazi-held sea fortress fell. . . .

First Waves at Pearl Harbor

then dress for work. In the evening eat at 6:00, visit the PX at 6:30 chat until 7:00 and then start standing in line for the wash tubs, ironing boards and showers and try to get a letter off. On Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Tuesday there is an outdoor movie much like those at LaMonte. There is the American Center, U. S. O. and Riverside leave area in town where one can dance with sailors and soldiers of all countries. You are the first American girl seen and you must go for dinner or on a date with every fellow in the place. It's a battle all evening long. I'm staying at home.

"So that's my life now. Naturally there is a lot of color in this country I have not mentioned that makes this an interesting place, still makes home the perfect spot. Summer Over There

"I believe Dorothy and Jim will be interested to know that the summer vacation has just begun for the school children. The boys all wore short pants, the girls just what you do, Dorothy. All went barefooted and carried their books and lunch to school in a leather pack which was strapped over their shoulders and under their arms. Some rode horses, some bicycles and some walked.

"Now for comments on your letters I received this week, the first since I left Oglethorpe. By the way, watch my return address. Air mail takes from ten days to two weeks to reach me; regular mail around a month; and packages a good three or four months.

"Yes, mother I have nice chums (mentions several of her WAC friends).

"As for a package there is little I need. Stockings are welcome as the G. I. are very dark and coupons must be used to purchase any. Don't send food—we can get all we like plus all the ants we want. You could send gum.

"No mail has been received from Ed. (brother killed in Europe). Jack confirmed the possibilities of his receiving his wings. I feel badly about not seeing or phoning him while in Georgia, but things happened so quickly.

"The hot weather and lack of Christmas trimmings makes it hard for the holiday spirit to get into our blood. The company has a lovely evening and day planned for us. Nevertheless, I'll be with you in thought on that day.

"Far more could be written as Australia is so different from what you might expect, but for now I'll kiss each one of you good night. "Mary Alice."

Jet-Propelled Plane In Action

MOSCOW, Jan. 11—4P—Major Fred Suprun, Red air force engineer, disclosed Wednesday that the American Airacomet jet-propelled plane recently has been in use against German robot bombs.

Suprun has just returned from a six-month visit in the United States, where he studied production of the jet-propelled plane at the Bell Aircraft plant.

(This is the first disclosure that any of the Allies have placed jet-propelled planes in action. The Bell company has been disclosed previously as manufacturer of the P-59-A Airacomet, and hundreds of test flights have been made. (The Germans have been using

Record High State Budget Is Proposed

Delayed One By Former Gov. Donnell For Huge Sum

JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 11.—(AP)—A record high state budget of $283,482,890 was recommended to the legislature Wednesday in a delayed budget message from Gov. Forrest Donnell who left office last Monday.
Donnell trimmed between $35,000,000 and $60,000,000 off appropriation requests made by state agencies which asked record sums totaling $343,046,678.
The recent governor's spending recommendations ranged from $283,482,890 to $308,928,890, depending upon the amount of federal money made available which he said probably would vary with the "date of termination of the war."
His lowest total of recommended spending was nearly $77,000,000 above the estimated expenditure of $206,702,304 during the biennium which ended last Dec. 31.
From the vital operating fund of general revenue—the moneys which must be watched most closely in achieving a balanced budget—Donnell recommended spending $81,847,644 although he estimated only $79,879,253 would be available for use after the school fund gets its customary one-third of general revenue.
Contrast With Estimate
His recommendation contrasted with $69,340,230 as the estimated expenditures from general revenue in 1943-44.
The school fund would amount to $39,382,126 if Donnell's estimated income of $119,261,380 for general revenue—a record high—holds up.
Among the appropriations Don-

A.P. Green Operates Largest Firebrick Plant in the World

Allen P. Green, subject of an article in a recent issue of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat describing his firebrick plant at Mexico, Mo., the largest in the world, is a former Miss Josephine Brown of Dresden. Mr. Green has a number of friends in Sedalia.
"Located a thousand miles from tidewater, the Green company is producing more firebrick for shipyards alone than the total capacity of many individual brick plants," the article asserts and continues, "It provides them with the refractories (materials capable of enduring high temperatures without melting) required for the boilers of merchant and war ships being built in the United States and Canada — and to such an extent that boiler linings in 19 out of every 20 Liberty ships launched in 1943 contained firebrick from Green's inland factory at Mexico."
Though his headquarters are in Mexico, Green owns firebrick

Pair Of Pants Drops From Out Of Sky

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Ed Blance: was driving along minding his business Wednesday when a pair of pants dropped out of the sky.
Papers in a wallet, containing $136, identified the owner as Maj. R. T. Akins, Deming Army Air Field, New Mexico.
Blance: drove on to the Oklahoma City air service command where he works and learned the major had just landed at nearby Tinker Field. The major, who emerged with pants on (a major is entitled to two pair of pants, isn't he?) Reported the other trousers had blown out of the plane as he tested his bomb bay doors.
plants in Toronto, Buenos Aires, Mexico, D. F., and London.
The Globe-Democrat story tells of Green's youthful ambitions, his persistence and his rise to success as directing head of the largest firebrick plant in the world.

Loan Company Has Election

Stockholders of Sedalia Industrial Loan and Investment Company, in the annual meeting held January 9, 1945, voted to reduce the number of directors for the company from nine to seven, and the following were elected directors: L. H. Archias, Jr., Claude L. Boul, W. H. Cloney, D. H. Dean, H. F. Dean, A. W. Klang, and D. S. Lamm.
Following the close of the stockholders meeting the board of directors met and elected the following officers: L. H. Archias, Jr., president, W. H. Cloney, vice-president, Claude L. Boul, secretary, treasurer and manager and Maude W. Jabas, assistant treasurer.
This year the company will have completed 20 years of continuous operations in Sedalia, having been organized in March, 1924.
